

NO MORE STONES

Du'a was not the first victim of stoning in Kurdistan. Could she be the last?

PUBLIC SEMINAR on the horrific stoning of Du'a, a 17 year old Yazidi girl who was brutally stoned to death in public in Bashiqa in Iraqi Kurdistan on the 7th April 2007.

Du'a's only "crime" was to fall in love with an Arab man not from her own "faith". We invite you all to this public seminar to shed light on this barbaric crime and discuss the background to so called honour killings in Kurdistan. The campaign will outline its plan of mounting pressure on the Kurdish authorities to take responsible measures to protect women from killing and stoning.

SPEAKERS

- Houzan Mahmoud: Representative Abroad of Organisation of Women's Freedom in Iraq and initiator of Campaign Against Killing and Stoning of Women in Kurdistan.
- Heather Harvey: Amnesty International's Women Against Violence project manager.
- Diana Nammi: Director of Kurdish and Iranian Women's Rights Organisation, and chair of International Campaign Against Honour Killings and initiator of Campaign Against Killing and Stoning of Women in Kurdistan.
- Rega Rauf: Representative of Organisation of Women's Freedom in Iraq in Sweden, writer and researcher in honour killings in Kurdistan.

Friday 18 May 2007 18:30-10:00

Amnesty International Human Rights Action Centre

17-25 New Inn Yard LONDON EC2A 3EA

For more information or to book:

Houzan Mahmoud

houzan73@yahoo.co.uk 079 56883001

Diana Nammi

diana.nammi@gmail.com 078 6273351 |

INTERNATIONAL CAMPAIGN AGAINST KILLING AND STONING OF WOMEN IN KURDISTAN