

HONOUR KILLINGS HONOUR OPPRESSION

The IRANIAN AND KURDISH
WOMEN'S RIGHTS
ORGANISATION will be holding its fourth annual conference on 'honour' related crime, violence and oppression on the 14th May 2008 and celebrating the LAUNCH OF
THE NATIONAL 'HONOUR
CRIME' HELPLINE in partnership with Karma Nirvana.

14th May

CONFERENCE

& launch of the national 'honour' crime helpline

Amnesty International Human Rights Centre
17-25 New Inn Yard
London EC2A 3EA

Registration from 9am
First speaker at 10.30

£40 statutory organisations/businesses
£20 voluntary organisations
£10 private individuals

Donations are welcome: proceeds go towards IKWRO's work protecting and supporting female victims of violence with no recourse to public funding.

Event includes lunch and an exhibition of the paintings of Jeroo Roy

For a booking form please contact:
Iranian and Kurdish Women's Rights Organisation
A: PO Box 62651 EC1P 1JP
T: 0207 490 0303
F: 0207 490 3707
E: ikwro@yahoo.co.uk
or download it from www.ikwro.org.uk

SPEAKERS:

Marilyn Mornington

and Simin Azimi (Chairs)

District judge and lead on domestic violence for the Family Justice Council; Director of the Refugee Women's Association

Diana Nammi

Director of the Iranian and Kurdish Women's Rights Organisation;
Founder of the International Campaign
Against Honour Killings

Our journey in fighting against
'honour': Barriers, progress and differences

DI Brent Hyatt

Homicide and Serious Crime command Case study of Banaz Mahmood and Heshu Yunes

Juliette Murray-Topham and Nazir Afzal

Producer/Director; Director, Crown Prosecution Service
Debate on BBC documentary
"Honour Kills"

Sarah Pepper

Child Protection Co-ordinator for Islington Children's Social Care
Children's services and
'honour' violence

Survivors

Our experiences of 'honour' crime

Jasvinder Sanghera

Director of Karma Nirvana
Establishing the national 'honour'
network and helpline

Commander Steve Allen

Association of Chief Police Officer's Lead on Forced Marriage and Honour Based Violence
The police response to 'honour'- based violence: a new strategy

Baroness Caroline Cox

House of Lords
Closing speech